

Celebrating the journeys of our immigrant ancestor
Jean Pierre Bondurant — From Génolhac to Virginia!

In the fall of 2024, the Bondurant Family Association and the LOVIV Association in Génolhac, France, birthplace of Jean Pierre Bondurant, sponsored an exhibition illustrating his dangerous journey from Génolhac to Aarau, Switzerland, then down the Rhine River to Amsterdam, before finally reaching London, England, where he boarded the second boatload of Huguenot refugees to travel to the English colony of Virginia in America in 1700. The exhibition was held at the Protestant Temple on La Grand Rue in Génolhac, from 18 August to 15 September, 2024. See the Virtual Meetings tab on BFA website <https://bondurant-family.org> to see videos from the 2024 trip to Génolhac, France.

This commemorative t-shirt has been designed to mark the event in Génolhac and to remember the sacrifices of the Huguenots to practice their Protestant faith during the 16th and 17th centuries in France. Made of 100% ringspun cotton, pre-shrunk, short sleeve, black t-shirt has a white imprint and is available in sizes from small to 4XL, while supplies last. Quantity is limited so don't miss your chance!

Indicate the number of shirts per size that you wish to order. If you're not sure what size to get, see the chart of shirt measurements at the bottom of this form. Prepayment is required.
